M.P. Woman Killed By Train

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO — Mrs. Vittoria Croce, 49-year-old housewife of Menlo Park, was killed instantly Tuesday morning when she stepped in front of a northbound commuter train at South San Francisco while on her way to see a victory ship launched at the Western Pipe & Steel Co. shipyard in South San Francisco. She was the wife of Luigi Croce, shipyard worker, at the Western Pipe & Steel Co.

Arriving in South San Francisco with her husband early Tuesday morning, the couple left their train and started eastward across Swift Ave., toward the shipyard, police said. Suddenly hearing the oncoming northbound train as she was crossing the tracks, Mrs. Croce, according to witnesses, apparently became confused and rushed from one side of the track to the other as the onrushing train bore on her.

Drug Store Enlarged

With completion of enlargement of the Redwood City Economy Drug Co. store at 2636 Broadway set for this week, the store will become one of the most modern on the Peninsula, Mgr. Walter M. Palmer said today.

Forty per cent floor space will be added to the local building with the West wall being taken out and the building formerly occupied by Stone's Creamery being used. There will be new departments and the present departments will be enlarged when the remodeling is completed, according to Palmer.

Every tanker sunk last Spring in the Axis submarine drive drive along the Atlantic Coast cost us enough gasoline to drive 13,000 cars from New York to San Francisco.

It's Private Huss In the U.S. Army

Only the U. S. Army could arrange things this way.

Pierre J. Huss, internationally known INS Berlin correspondent, author of "The Foe We Face" and one of America's foremost journalists, is a buck private in the army.

More than that, he is now a member of the staff of "Cycle," publication of Ft. McClellan, Ala., supervised by First Lt. Robert Connell, former sports editor of the Redwood City Tribune. Connell left his Tribune post for army duty. Mrs. Connell, the former Audrey Steele, is a former Tribune society editor and she disclosed news of Huss' arrival at Ft. McClellan in a letter to friends here.

The sergeant in charge of classifications, she wrote, reported to Lieutenant Connell Oct. 31 that "there's some guy down here who has put himself down as a foreign correspondent. Maybe you can use him on the 'Cycle'. Of course you can't tell about these guys. Sometimes they talk kind of big on these class cards."

The "guy" was Huss, drafted at Camp Upton, N. Y., on the eve of his departure for Europe. He had returned to the United States in November of 1941.

According to John Huss, Pierre's father, and an East Palo Alto real estate man, Pierre was heading for London, probably to cover the North African operations for INS when he was draft tagged in New York. He last wrote his father two weeks ago, announcing the imminence of his army life. Since then he has shipped home a supply of books and papers for safekeeping.

Pierre Huss started his newspaper career on the Times in Palo Alto, and spent one year at Stanford before going East to complete his education. He last visited his father in April.

Dimout Zone Crash Kills W. J. Large

William J. Large, 60, Coastside hotel and dude ranch owner, was dead today, the victim of a dimout zone traffic accident on the Coast highway, one mile south of Sharp Park at 8:10 p.m. Sunday.

According to witnesses, Large's car was stalled, the rear wheels spinning in soft dirt, and the vehicle straddling the northbound traffic lane. Thomas V. Godia, 32, Half Moon Bay farm laborer, told police he was driving north, failed to see the stalled vehicle in the darkness, and crashed into it.

Large was pinned between the two cars, fatally injured.

He was the father of the Sisters Dolly, one-time internationally famous dancing team. Barbara (Billie) Large, one of the dancing sisters, was a witness in the slaying of Ray Lagomarsino and Leo Tyma, escaped convicts, at the Wave Crest Inn near Half Moon Bay in 1939.

E. J. Miller of San Francisco and Clato Cima of Moss Beach told highway patrolmen they saw Large's car in difficulty on the Coast road and were seeking to assist him at the time of the accident. Miller had attached a tow-rope to the stalled vehicle and Cima was standing by when, he said, he saw Godia's car approaching. He attempted to flag down the vehicle, then jumped to the center of the highway to avoid injury. Large was crushed against the door of his car.

It takes about 75 pounds of cotton to equip and maintain a soldier for one year, two or three times that much if he's on combat duty.

California Nutrition Committee Lists Foods To Be Kept for Emergency Use

California Nutrition Committee has issued a suggested list of foods to be kept at home for emergency use. These food lists will furnish well balanced rations, it was pointed out.

In order to meet all vitamin requirements such a ration should include yellow or orange fruit or dark green vegetables and whole grain cereals. The committee advises housewives to buy foods "which fit your purse and your family's tastes."

The following lists, by proper use of alternatives, require no cooking but are improved by heating, making hot soups, hot beverages, if facilities for heating are available, the committee says.

If there are small children, additional amounts of canned milk, fruit juices and vegetables are necessary. Evaporated milk may be made palatable by mixing with fruit juices, with chocolate syrup, or making into cream soups.

It is desirable to keep at least one gallon of water for each member of the family in tightly stoppered glass containers as an emergency reserve, the committee says. To preserve good flavor these bottles should be emptied, washed thoroughly and refilled at intervals.

The committee makes the following list for three days' supply for four persons:

1. Flour, cereals, crackers (preferably whole grain), 6 lbs.
2. Dried beans or canned beans, ½ lb. or 2 No. 2 cans.
3. Dairy products—evaporated milk, 10 tall cans and American type cheese, 12 oz.
4. Meat and fish, 6 12-oz tins.
5. Canned fruit or juices—citrus or tomato juice, 6 No. 2 cans; yellow fruits, 4 No. 2½ cans; others 4 No. 2½ cans.
6. Canned vegetables (dehydrated vegetables and soups when available), dark green, leafy or yellow, 2 No. 2 cans; starchy (beans, corn, etc.), 2 No. 2 cans; others including soups, 2 No. 2 cans.
7. Fats—hydrogenated peanut butter, ½ lb.; hydrogenated fat or oil, 1½ lb.
8. Sweets—sugar, syrup, jam, molasses, jelly, candy, 2 lbs.
9. Sundries, as desired—coffee, tea, cocoa or chocolate syrup, salt, pepper, vinegar, baking powder, soda, small amounts of spice, catsup, onion salt, celery salt, prepared mustard, dessert powder.

Blood Unit To Visit

Eighty-five members of organized groups will provide the majority of blood donors Saturday when the mobile unit of the San Francisco Blood Procurement Center makes its monthly visit here, Mrs. Richard Schmidt, chairman of the blood donor service for the local Red Cross, said today. Fifty are registered from the Eagles lodge and 35 from teachers and employes of Sequoia High School.

The unit will be here both Friday and Saturday, taking care of 200 donors during that time. Twenty-two will be giving blood for the third time and will be eligible to wear the silver emblem of honor.

Registrations are now being taken for the December visit of the mobile unit, according to Mrs. Schmidt. The quota is constantly being increased, she said, and the need for more donors is growing. Firms and organizations are urged to place the need for this service before their memberships. Registration may be made by calling Red Cross headquarters (R. C. 118) at Broadway and Jefferson.

Just to make sure, a Midwest youth enlisted in both the Army and the Navy. When the Army called him he was at a naval training station.

Lakin Sentenced To San Quentin

Twenty-one-year-old Joseph Lakin of San Francisco was sentenced to San Quentin Monday for one year to life for second degree robbery when he appeared before Judge Maxwell McNutt in superior court at Redwood City. Lakin admitted robbing two girl clerks in a San Mateo Safeway store Oct. 3.

Lakin was on probation for taking part in four armed robberies in San Francisco. He served six months in the San Francisco county jail as a condition of the probation.

Lakin was led into the courtroom in handcuffs, because, according to the sheriff's office, he had wisecracked that the way to escape was to bolt from a courtroom crowded with people where officers would be unwilling to fire.

Shrapnel Hits M.P. Marine

MENLO PARK—He was hit by more than 50 pieces of Jap shrapnel in fighting on Guadalcanal, Cpl. Robert H. Thomas told his family in Menlo Park when he visited them this week for the first time since he was returned to the United States for treatment. Corporal Thomas will have the shrapnel removed gradually at the naval hospital in Oakland, he said.

The marine was in high spirits when he saw his family, who live at 449 Oak Grove Ave. in Menlo Park, and joked:

"I'll give my friends Jap souvenirs as soon as they remove some of the shrapnel."

Corporal Thomas attended school in Menlo Park, graduated from Sequoia Union High School and attended San Mateo Junior College.

M.P. Garage Fire Destroys Furniture

MENLO PARK — Menlo Park Fire District firemen Tuesday extinguished a garage fire at a dwelling occupied by Glen Kelley on Almendral Ave. near Middlegate St.

Reported at 1:25 p.m., the fire gutted the structure, destroying furniture stored there. Chief Thomas Cuff estimated the damage at $1500 and has not yet determined the cause.

Twelve firemen answered the call.

Backbones of sharks are used as walking sticks.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Down in the Solomon Islands, our Marines landed from convoy and troopship in Higgins' landing boats. These boats are specially constructed . . . with a shielded propeller to negotiate sand bars and shallow water. They are capacious, extremely buoyant and some have landing ramps so that tanks may roll out on the beach.

They are powered by an internal combustion engine and cost up to $12,000 each. You can help pay for these important factors in Marine operations with your regular purchase of War Bonds. If all of us INVEST AT LEAST TEN PERCENT of our income every payday, we will provide Uncle Sam with enough money to do the job. War costs money and this is your war.

THRIFT IS NOT A HARDSHIP
It is no hardship to save all we can to invest in War Bonds. It is no hardship to learn to shop carefully . . . to buy good qualities of the things we need, and to make them last. All that's necessary is to find out where you get the most for your money.
Penney stores, as you probably know, have always avoided those extra services that send prices up. So Penney policies are, today, in wartime, better than ever suited to the needs of the American family.

Gasoline Ration: Car Owners Must Pool Transportation To Receive Extra Supply

Automobile commuters who want supplementary gasoline rations when the federal government's rubber conservation program becomes effective, probably Dec. 1, will have to transport other workers in their cars, Ralph S. Dodge, Redwood City rationing board chairman, said this week.

Following a meeting Tuesday night, attended by plant, school and rationing board members, with Mrs. Linna Culver, state Office of Price Administration field worker, Dodge said that it will be mandatory for all plants employing more than 100 persons to form labor-management committees towards this end.

The committees when formed, he said, will investigate the commuting situation in their plants and issue certifications to workers desiring additional rations and willing to carry extra passengers. Certification slips must be presented to ration board members when application is made for the additional gasoline.

The Pacific Portland Cement Co., the National Motor Bearing Co. and Frank's Tannery, all in Redwood City, fall into the classification of those employing more than 100 workers and are taking steps, Dodge continued, to organize committees.

The meeting with Mrs. Culver, conducted at ration board headquarters, was attended by A. G. Lang of the cement plant, J. L. Steendahl of the bearing firm, Andrew Spinas of the school system, J. H. Stubbe of East Palo Alto and L. J. Steinhardt of the Woodside and Portola district.

As announced Tuesday a registration in all Redwood City schools for all automobile owners has been postponed from Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week to Nov. 18, 19 and 20.

At that time non-commuters will be entitled to receive coupon books which will allow them to purchase four gallons of gasoline weekly, Dodge said.

Ballet Russe To Be Presented

SAN FRANCISCO—The Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo which, with its new members, proved one of the sensations of the season at New York's Metropolitan recently, is coming to the War Memorial Opera House for eight performances starting Thursday evening, Nov. 19, under the management of the San Francisco Opera Assn. This is without question one of the biggest undertakings of the Opera Association, outside of the seasons of its Opera Company.

With many of the old familiar stars and with its sensational new numbers in its repertoire, there is every reason to believe from the heavy advance sale, that New York's spectacular season will be duplicated here.

Heading the company again is Leonide Massine, who, with the passing of the old master, Michel Fokine, stands today as the foremost male figure in the dance. Alexandra Danilova, most brilliant ballerina of the day, shares the spotlight with the titian-haired star of pictures, Mia Slavenska. The third to this notable triumvirate of stars, is Nathalie Krassovska, Russian glamour personified. The company also boasts of a notable aggregation of male dancers including Igor Youskevitch, Frederic Franklin, George Zoritch, Roland Guerard and a host of others.

The important musical side of the ballet is in the hands of Franz Allers, the company's conductor for several seasons past and Gregor Fittelberg, founder of the Warsaw Radio Symphony Orchestra, who appears as a guest conductor.

Featuring the new works which New York acclaimed, are such highly contrasted ballets as the classical "Snow Maiden" to the music of Glazounov; the richly humorous American Rodeo" or the Court-tLg "American Rodeo" or the "Courting of Burnt Ranch," to the highly specialized music of America's foremost composer, Aaron Copland; the abstractly beautiful "Concerto in E Minor" by Chopin; and the new ballet to Max Bruch's brilliant concerto for violin.

Tickets for all performances are now on sale at Sherman Clay Box Office, EXbrook 8585.

Oil Company Publishes Folder

"Things you should know about mileage rationing" is the title of a compact little folder issued by Shell Oil Co., Inc., and is available free at Shell dealers and Shell service stations. Small enough to fit vest pockets or wallets, the folder tells motorists the steps they need to take before they receive their gasoline rationing books. It also contains information about what to do before and after Nov. 18, 19 and 20 (the revised registration dates), when Mr. and Mrs. Automobile Owner will make another trip to the schoolhouse, this time to get gas coupons. All the preliminary essential information is contained in seven paragraphs, and the little folder helps to simplify the entire procedure of applying for coupon books.

Another wartime service that Shell is giving to motorists goes hand in hand with gasoline rationing. It is called the "Pace Pointer": a small, colored arrow that is to be stuck on the glass face of the speedometer dial at the 35 mark—and acts as a forceful reminder that 35 miles an hour is the new war speed for all vehicles. Violation of the new speed limit is likely to cause offending motorists the loss of their rationing privileges.

BUY WISELY Read food advertisements carefully. Then plan your shopping. Select foods that can carry-over into a next day meal. Utilize outer stalks and leaves from vegetables. Take advantage of canned goods specials. It will pay you to become market-wise. Follow radio tips of what crops are in. Buy what is plentiful and lower in price.

PLAN NUTRITION MEALS Plan your meals for the entire day so that every day your family will eat the eight essential foods recommended by Government health experts. Nutrition is not a wartime fad. Nutrition is a matter of getting enough of the right kind of food for health and fitness. Cook foods properly to keep them brimful of health-vitamins.

TAKE CARE OF YOUR RANGE Your present range is valuable. Take care of it. You may have to use it for a long time. Keep it cleaned up at all times. Be careful about chipping or cracking its enamel surface. Tenderize meats with low-temperature roasting. Save fuel with slow-boil, steam-through cooking.

Now's the time to serve heartier meals

Old Jack Frost has hit the high spots and with the turn of temperature, family appetites favor piping hot substantial food. There is a craving for thick soups, steaming stews and quantities of buttered vegetables.

Oven foods, too, are high in favor. For convenience, and the economy of using inexpensive cuts of meat, let your oven do four-way duty as in the dinner below. A moderate oven (375° F.) is just right for meat, potatoes, and squash. During the last 15 minutes raise the temperature to 450 ° F. for the biscuits and dinner is on.

YOU SEE... I SHOP AT SAFEWAY AND FOR INSTANCE.. THEY SELL THEIR PRODUCE BY THE POUND, SO YOU GET EXACTLY WHAT YOU WANT— THERE'S NO WASTE THAT WAY, AND... WELL, JUST READ THEIR ADS AND YOU'LL SEE HOW MUCH YOU CAN SAVE!

Willkie Pilot Divorced Here

Florence Klotz of Menlo Park this week had her final decree of divorce from Capt. Alexis Klotz, who piloted Wendell L. Willkie around the world. The decree was signed late Tuesday on an affidavit filed in superior court at Redwood City by the captain.

Florence Klotz and Jon Spalinger, 36, San Francisco, have applied for a marriage license in Santa Clara County.

Captain Klotz, native of Menlo Park, was with a commercial air line when his wife instituted divorce proceedings, charging general cruelty. The court approved a property settlement. Subsequently Mrs. Klotz sought to have the decree altered, claiming her husband had not made a complete showing of his assets.

The court declined to alter the interlocutory decree.

Mrs. Klotz is staying temporarily with Mr. and Mrs. James L. Rogers, 357 Arden Ave., Menlo Park.

"TRAVELING BILLBOARDS" Recruit for Navy

The picture above shows Doreen Williams about to christen the first of five streamlined Greyhound Supercoaches which will travel Northern California highways to carry the message "fly for Navy," to young highschool graduates, 18 to 26. The slogan is displayed on both sides of each bus in huge letters, with the address of the San Francisco recruiting office also shown. The naval officer in the picture is Lt. Comdr. E. H. Walters, who accepted the "traveling billboards" from F. W. Ackerman, vice president of Pacific Greyhound Lines. All five buses carrying the recruiting slogan are in service on regular Greyhound runs.

Book Describes World War II

The first and only book of its kind to come out of World War II to date—a dramatic eyewitness account of fighting around the world as seen by top-flight newsmen on the scene—reaches the public today under the title, "Free Men Are Fighting."

The author is Oliver Gramling, veteran newsman, who wrote one of 1940's best-sellers, "AP—The Story of News." He describes the book as "a people's book about a people's war."

Based on the first-hand accounts of Associated Press correspondents over the globe, "Free Men Are Fighting" presents a highlight panorama of the first three years of the conflict. Gramling moulded it from the accounts of seventy or more correspondents, of whom he says:

"Some of the men have been in the thick of the war since it began. Others have been mustered out because of illness, wounds—even death. A good many are now interned in enemy countries. But where one has had to stop, another has taken his place. You will find them all human beings."

Gramling's treatment of the material from all these men gives it an over-all meaning and provides an interesting commentary on the events that followed the massacre of Poland, almost up to the present.

In addition to a first-hand report on the war itself, "Free Men Are Fighting" attains balance and easy readability by reflecting many of the interesting, unusual and amusing activities of people in wartime.

Belmont Grass Fire Burns Over Three Acres

BELMONT — A grass fire of which Mosquito Abatement District workmen, operating at the northern limits of the Belmont fire district east of the Old County Rd., lost control called out two trucks and seven men from the Belmont fire district Tuesday.

Fire Chief Roussel Smith said the abatement workers had started the fire without notifying the fire department and without proper precautionary equipment on hand.

Starting at 2:15 p.m., the fire burnt over three acres and threatened a small dwelling before being brought under control.

T. B. Association Urges Seal Purchase

San Mateo County Tuberculosis and Health Assn. this month is asking people of this community to purchase Christmas seals for the ornamentation of their holiday letters and packages, officials of the association said today. Funds raised will be used in carrying on the the fight against tuberculosis. Reports in San Francisco show that tuberculosis has begun to spread rapidly in this part of the state because of the influx of men and women from other parts of the country into shipyards and factories, and overcrowded living conditions.

Episcopal Girls To Plan Start Of Friendly Society

The girls and young women of St. Peter's Episcopal Church will gather at the home of Mrs. George Wilczewski of Upland Rd. at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon to discuss the formation of a local chapter of the Girls' Friendly Society.

Mrs. Wilczewski has asked Ruth Reinhard, Beverly Black and Lenore Pauling to assist her and preside at the tea table.

Among those planning to attend the tea are many of the girls who belong to the Young People's Fellowship, of which Jacqueline Walker is president. Recent appointments by Miss Walker include those of Barbara Hagar and Robert Feldscher as reporters; Paula Stuck, publicity; Marianne McKnight, choir robes and records, and Patricia Kiernan, secretary to Mrs. Wilczewski, YPF adviser.

Red Cross To Handle Dinner Bids

If you want a Thanksgiving dinner guest to take the place of that boy of yours who's in the service now, the Red Cross can help you, according to Mrs. J. R. Fox, chairman for camp and hospital service of the Redwood City chapter.

Thanksgiving dinner bids will be received by the Red Cross here and turned over to the field director at Moffett Field, who will select the guests from among the navy men at the base there, Mrs. Fox said.

The men will be on duty until 4:30 p.m. on Turkey Day, so the meal must be an evening one. Only other restriction is that the host must be able to guarantee transportation to and from Moffett Field.

Mrs. Mayes, Eugene Fulton To Be Featured

EUGENE FULTON

Ten per cent of all mail for members of the American armed forces is incorrectly or insufficiently addressed.

Mrs. Mabel Mayes, wife of the late Lt. Herbert C. Mayes, and Eugene Fulton, director of Bel Canto Chorus, will share honors as soloists when Bel Canto is presented in concert at the Sequoia High School auditorium Nov. 17 under the auspices of the Sequoia Parent Teacher Association.

Mrs. Mayes, who teaches in the Redwood City schools, has a contralto voice which has become popular with Redwood City churchgoers and music lovers. This will be her second appearance as soloist with Bel Canto.

Mr. Fulton, who has directed Bel Canto since its organization four years ago, is well known throughout the Bay Area as a a teacher and director as well as baritone soloist. In San Francisco he directs the Loring Club Male Chorus and the Trinity Church choir.

Under Mr. Fulton's direction, Bel Canto Chorus has made numerous appearances in Redwood City, won an award for the concert given during the exposition on Treasure Island, broadcast nationally and been presented by request at Sigmund Stern Grove and in several concerts in other peninsula cities.

Incidental solos with a choral background will be sung by Mrs. Mary Steinbach, mezzo soprano; George Prall, tenor, and Mrs. Helen Lawson, soprano. About 70 voices will take part in the concert.

Two Youths Held For San Francisco

Donald Eberhardt, 23, and Robert D. Imboden, 25, both of 85 11th St., San Francisco, were arrested by Redwood City police Sunday at 1:30 a.m. when they were apprehended driving an automobile listed by San Francisco police as stolen.

Stopped on Bayshore Hwy. near the Chestnut St. intersection, they were taken to the county jail en route to San Francisco authorities.

Woodside Man Held for Theft

Walter Kelly, 28, of Woodside, was free on $500 bail today after he surrendered to the sheriff at Redwood City on a complaint charging him with three petty thefts. The district attorney's office said Kelly is accused of operating a confidence game, offering to sell good used tires, collecting the money, but failing to deliver the goods.

Dep. Dist. Atty. Burress Karmel said it was uncertain whether or not federal tire regulations had been violated.

Complaints against Kelly were signed by Woodside Fire Chief John Volpiano, by Bill Skovgard, proprietor of Ed's Place, and by Tony Dedo, also of Woodside.

Volpiano told the sheriff's office that Kelly approached him early in October, asked him if he needed tires, and said he had a friend with two for sale.

He collected $18.50 from Volpiano, according to the complaint. He is also charged with collecting $10 from Skovgard on Oct. 22 and $10 from Dedo in June. Karmel said there are other victims and that additional complaints may be filed.

Births Exceed Deaths By 51 in October

Births exceeded deaths in San Mateo County by 51 during the month of October, it was announced here by T. Clark Rice, county recorder. There were 146 births during the month and 95 deaths. Seventy-three marriages were recorded.

A total of 2952 papers was handled by the office during October, bringing in fees totaling $4198.40. Fees for the same month in 1941 amounted to $4994.65.

Redwood City: Situation Here Termed 'Very Critical'

Not only Redwood City but the entire State of California is experiencing a housing shortage.

A survey by the railroad commission of 86 non-war industry communities shows that only 6724 dwelling units in the entire state are unoccupied, the state council of defense said this week.

The housing situation in Redwood City is "very critical," according to real estate men. There is nothing to rent or buy, Teddy Lauman, secretary of the Redwood City-San Carlos Real Estate Board, said Wednesday.

"Real estate men have nothing to sell," he stated. "When we do get anything people pounce on it."

Henry Witte of Redwood City, state director of the California Real Estate Assn. and honorary president of that organization, said there is nothing available at all, "and there is nothing we can do about it unless we can start building houses again."

Witte said a man who visited his office this week had been offered a good job in Redwood City but had to turn it down because he could find no place to live.

What effect gas rationing will have on the housing situation was discussed at a meeting of the Redwood City-San Carlos Real Estate Board Wednesday. No definite plan of action was made, according to Witte.

"The shift of population to war industry centers is being paralleled by another shift of families not engaged in war work to non-war industry centers," the state council said. "Many of these families, who see food rationing on the increase, are getting out where gardens, chickens and rabbits can be raised. They are returning to the source of supply."

No San Mateo community is listed by the state council as having vacant houses available. The council lists the following as communities where some good dwellings at low rents are still available:

Balboa, Jamestown, Sutter Creek, Jackson, Sonora, Laguna Beach, Nevada City, Red Bluff, Ione, Gass Valley, Santa Barbara, Santa Monica, Colfax, San Andreas, Kingsburg, Fresno, Clovis, Colusa, Corning, Claremont, El Monte, Oroville, Auburn, Newman, Huntington Beach, Sierra Madre, Fowler, Gustine, Selma, South Pasadena.

Florance O'Conner, who writes under the name of Barrett Willoughby, has obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce from Capt. Larry O'Conner of Washington, former furniture store owner. She charged cruelty.

They were married in Reno July 17, 1935, and separated in San Carlos June 23, 1942.

Mrs. O'Conner is a writer of Alaska adventure novels. The divorce decree was signed by Judge Maxwell McNutt at Redwood City.

Daly City Woman Killed in Fall

DALY CITY—Mrs. Jessie Hart, 68, longtime resident of Daly City, died early Tuesday at the St. Francis Hospital in San Francisco from injuries sustained Monday night when she fell down basement stairs at the home of a Daly City friend.

The accident occurred at 7:30 p.m. when Mrs. Hart, thinking she was entering a bedroom in the home of Leroy Johnson, 72 Wilson St., opened the basement door by mistake and stepped inside.

San Carlos Appeals For More Firemen

SAN CARLOS—Following suggestions made by officials of the Office of Civilian Defense, after they had directed a city-wide test of the San Carlos defense setup, the San Carlos Civilian Defense Council today asked for registration of persons willing to serve as auxiliary firemen. Classes will be opened soon for training of new recruits, who may register at the fire station Sunday, according to L. J. Vardis of the San Carlos council.

The council has scheduled a control center test for Wednesday evening, Nov. 18. Two evenings later a city-wide test will call into action the entire defense organization.

New classes for decontamination squad and air raid warden volunteers are being formed this week, Vardis said.
